I'm Not Catholic – I'm Protestant, Evangelical, or Another Faith

"I'm not Catholic...But I'd like to know more about what the Catholic Church teaches, and why. We understand that you may have questions about the Catholic Church. We're here to provide compelling answers to your various questions. If you are open to seeing what God is offering, you may be surprised with what you find in the Catholic faith. Many people who take time to learn about the teachings of the Church soon discover that they really don't have the objections they thought they had. Converts to the Catholic faith throughout the centuries have noted the unmistakably "Catholic" teachings of the early Church Fathers, uncovering the rich and extensive history of the Catholic Church, dating back to Christ Himself. The late Archbishop Fulton Sheen once said, "There are not even 100 people in this country who hate the Catholic Church, but there are millions who hate what they think the Catholic Church to be." Keep in mind that the Catholic Church has been around for 2,000 years. Over the years, there have been an untold number of questions and objections raised about her teachings and practices. The answers are there. It's worth your time to find them. (The Bible made me do it) The Lord wants us all to know and understand His truth, so we can embrace it wholeheartedly and live by it. Christ reminds us, "The truth shall make you free" (John 8:32). Thank you for taking the time to look into the Catholic Church. Please explore the many resources we have to help you in your search for truth. Do not be afraid to ask questions. We want to help you find answers! God bless you on your journey!"

I'm Not Currently Attending Mass

"If you were baptized Catholic but just haven't been to Mass in a while, or maybe you left the practice of your Catholic faith for a particular reason, then the I'm Not Currently Attending Mass door is for you. Entering this door will help you with information to help you consider a journey home to the Church. This door also features information on Church teachings. You will discover why it's worth returning to the Catholic Faith, no matter how long you've been away or what's happened while you've been gone. God will never stop searching for you. Jesus wants to invite you back into His big and loving Catholic family, in the Church He founded 2,000 years ago. Christ is calling you home, but the choice is ultimately yours. We've missed you and we're glad you are here."

I'm Not Currently Attending Mass

"We're here to help you begin or continue your faith journey, so you can find true peace, happiness and purpose in life. There's an old saying that goes, "Once a Catholic, always a Catholic." Maybe you have been away from the Church for a little while or quite some time, but somehow you now feel a tug at your heart calling you back home to the Catholic Church. That's why we're here. Whether or not you know you want to return to the Catholic Church, we're here to help you take that second look. That mysterious pull inside you, driving you to look into your faith once more, comes directly from God. Your Heavenly Father is yearning for a relationship with you again, in the Church founded by Jesus 2000 years ago. He's waiting for you with open arms. You may want to take some time to explore all of the resources we have provided, to help you learn more about coming home to the Catholic Church. We know you may have questions, and may even want to resolve some past hurts before you can feel free to enter into a relationship with Jesus or His Church again. We understand. You are not alone. The Church has compelling answers to all of your questions. The Catholic Church has never wavered in its mission to spread truth and love throughout the world. The Lord wants us all to know and understand His truth, so we can embrace it wholeheartedly and live by it. Christ himself reminds us that "The truth shall make you free" (John 8:32). Consider this a sign, and your invitation to rediscover the truth, wonder and mystery of the Catholic faith. We are family. Welcome home!"

I'm Blessed to Be Catholic

“We’re so glad you’ve come to Catholics Come Home to help us spread the good news about Christ’s Church to our families, friends and neighbors. We couldn’t do it without you! Jesus Christ is so thankful for your desire to grow in faith and to share it with others. Jesus shows us a glimpse of the reward for our faithfulness when He said, “Come, O blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world...” (Matthew 25:34). Our Lord also promises us in the Book of James that “whoever brings back a sinner from the error of his way will save his soul from death and will cover a multitude of sins” (James 5:20). You see, God calls us to tend to the physical needs of our brothers and sisters, but also to their spiritual needs. Our beloved Pope Benedict XVI once said, “The absence of God is worse than material poverty.” People are hungry and thirsty for the truth. We must bring it to them.”
